

ABOUT US.

The company focuses on promoting and supporting local artisans and craftsmen by providing them with a platform to showcase and sell their traditional handicraft products. These products may include items such as bead work & hand embroidery, purse, bag, dress, earrings, necklace, and other crafts unique to the region.

As a producer company, BCPCL operates under the guidelines of the Indian Companies Act, which allows for the formation of cooperatives to empower producers, particularly in rural areas. By organizing artisans into a cooperative structure, BCPCL aims to enhance their collective bargaining power, improve access to markets, and ensure fair prices for their products.

“The secret of getting ahead is getting started.”
